Belem - name is derived from the Portuguese word for Bethlehem, is the southwesternmost civil parish of the municipality of Lisbon. Located at the mouth of the Tagus River, it is located 3.7 mi west of the city center of Lisbon. Many of Portugal's distinctive buildings and landmarks are located in this area, including the Jerónimos Monastery and the Tower of Belém.

Tuk Tuk - a small three-wheeled motorized vehicle traditionally used as a taxi. We will be in eco Tuk Tuks to navigate through the narrow streets of Lisbon and see it's true beauty.

Sintra - is a resort town in the foothills of Portugal's Sintra Mountains. A longtime royal sanctuary, its forested terrain is studded with pastel-colored villas and palaces. The Moorish and Manueline-style Sintra National Palace is distinguished by dramatic twin chimneys and elaborate tile-work. The hilltop 19th-century Pena National Palace is known for a whimsical design and sweeping views.

Cabo da Roca - is a cape which forms the westernmost extent of mainland Portugal and continental Europe (and by definition the Eurasian land mass).

Park Güell - is a public park system composed of gardens and architectonic elements. With urbanization in mind, Eusebi Güell assigned the design of the park to Antoni Gaudí, a renowned architect and the face of Catalan modernism.

Las Arenas - Plaza de toros de las Arenas was a bullring in Barcelona, Spain. Over the years it featured numerous musical artists, including Carlos Santana and Paco de Lucia in 1977. The building was reopened in 2011 as a shopping mall named Las Arenas de Barcelona.

Sagrada Familia - is a large Roman Catholic church in Barcelona, designed by Spanish architect Antoni Gaudí (1852–1926). Although incomplete, the church is a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Construction of Sagrada Familia commenced in 1882 and Gaudí became involved in 1883, taking over the project and transforming it with his architectural and engineering style, combining Gothic and curvilinear Art Nouveau forms. Gaudí devoted his last years to the project. An anticipated completion date of 2026, the centenary of Gaudí's death.

Port Olímpic - The Port Olímpic is a marina located in Barcelona, Catalonia. Located east of the Port of Barcelona, it hosted the sailing events for the 1992 Summer Olympics. The venue was opened in 1991.
